1-Reel STAR COMEDY

A husband and wife get into two different telephone booths and try to call each other at home. It takes so long to get a connection that the night watchman comes and locks them both up in the booths. Hubby gets tired of putting coins in the slot so he ties a string to his nickel and retrieves it after he has got his call.

In the morning Hubby and Wifey find they have been within talking distance of one another all night. Considerable amusement is furnished by the antics of some men who watch a short-skirted girl step into a booth with doors that reveal her legs up to her knees. Something distracts the attention of the peeping Toms for a minute and the girl goes out and a man wearing knickerbockers enters the booth. Then the men keep their eyes on the lower extremities of the person in the booth until he comes out and they discover their mistake.
